

Boolean expressions are said to be equal if they yield the same truth value for all truth assignments.

A Boolean expression is a tautology if it yields true for all truth assignments;

It is satisfiable if it yields true for at least one truth assignment